To make the a larger or smaller cowl or blanket, use an odd multiple of 3+2. Using an odd multiple lets both sides be the same.

This crochet pattern is 3 back post double crochet then 3 front post double crochet stitches.

Change colors ever 2 rows.

front and back post double crochet: instead of going through both loops like normal you go around the post either from the front or the back. You then complete the double crochet like normal.

Row 2: bpdc in the 2nd st and the follow 2 sts. *Then fpdc in the next 3 sts. bpdc in the next 3*. Repeat ** ending with 2 bpdc and 1 hdc. Chain 2 and turn.

Row 3: fpdc in the 2nd st and the follow 2 sts. *Then bpdc in the next 3 sts. fpdc in the next 3*. Repeat ** ending with 2 fpdc and 1 hdc. Chain 2 and turn.

Repeat Row 2-3 until you have 9 rows or the height you want.

Cut and knot yarn. Weave in ends.

In the fifth row 9 stitches over sew on the button using coordinating yarn.

The color change is 4 rows of the low tide then 1 row of the dark blue, then 3 rows of the low tide, followed by 1 row of the dark blue. Repeat and finish with low tide.

Finishing

Fold the rectangle in half on the horizontal. Then slip or whip stitch the edges together to form the cowl. You can pin the edges together if it helps.
